

ADVISEMENT OF RIGHTS (BECKWITH WARNING)

You have a right to remain silent if your answers may tend to incriminate you.

Anything you say may be used against you as evidence both in an administrative proceeding or any future criminal proceeding involving you.

If you refuse to answer the questions posed to you on the grounds that the answers may tend to incriminate you, you cannot be discharged solely for remaining silent.

I have read the aforementioned and agreed to the terms mentioned therein.
